About Planned Giving

Through a planned gift, you can leave a legacy of caring for women in transition. In addition, the tax and financial benefits of planned gifts can help you ensure the future of your loved ones while enabling you to make a larger, longer lasting gift to Resonance Center for Women than you would be able to during your life. Resonance Center for Women can be named to receive a bequest in your will, or can be designated as a beneficiary of a life insurance or retirement plan.

Resonance Center for Women will be happy to work with you and your professional advisors to create a charitable gift plan. Please return this form to Resonance or contact Amy Amatucci, Director of Development at aamatucci@resonancetulsa.org or 918.587.3888 for more information on this giving option.
